

OUR LIBRARY

Libraries for children are essential for the respect of United Nation's Convention on the Rights of the child to the development of his or her full potential, the right to free and open access to information, materials, under equal condition for all irrespective of age, race, sex, religion, national and cultural background, language, social status or personal skills and abilities.

Our Library offers the students the following:

- ❖ Quality programs that support the curriculum.
- ❖ Help teachers integrate information literacy skills into learning activities.
- ❖ Promote information literacy by helping students develop skills to find, evaluate, use, create and share information and knowledge.
